COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The Ordinance Uniforming the Police Passes the Lower Board.

The General Council met at the City Hall at the usual hour last night. The announcement that the police ordinance providing for a uniform system would be brought up, drew out a full attendance.

A message was received from the Mayor stating that the Louisville City Railway Company had in some respects violated their contract, and recommending that the Council take some action in the matter. T. C. Tucker offered a resolution that the Mayor and Assistant City Attorney take the proper steps to recover damages from the Company, and that the contract between the Company and city be annulled. The message, together with the resolution, were referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Wood, Miller and C. G. Smith.

After the reading of the Mayor's messages the police ordinance, which was the special order for to-night, was taken up, section by section. The first four sections were passed without much debate. When the fifth section was called up, Col. Dent, from the Eight ward, offered an amendment making the following uniform: A blue flannel blouse and pants and a black hat or cap made in uniform style. The uniforms shall be prepared in thirty days. That they shall wear the silver badge, new worn on the outside of the coat, on the left breast. This dress is to be worn until the 1st of October. The uniform from the 1st of October to the first of June shall be a blue cloth coat and pants of uniform style. It also provides that the chief of police shall, by rules, change the wearing of the uniform according to the season, so as to comply with the comfort of the police on duty. It also provides that the police, while on duty, shall wear a badge on the front of their hat with the following on it: "Police No. —."

The amendment was accepted by the committee who prepared the ordinance. They further added that the regular police button should be put on the coat, which should be a badge 10 to 12 in size, and should be placed on the left breast. The ordinance was then passed, and the Council adjourned.

Col. Dent offered an amendment to the 5th section, to the effect that the police should be allowed to watch at garages and other places. The amendment was passed, and the ordinance was then passed.

Phil Coleman offered a resolution regarding the price of ferris, and also regarding the running of ferris boats between this point and the Indiana shore. The ordinance reduces the rates of ferris, and provides for the boats to run until 12 o'clock at night.

In the Police Board the Police Committee was read and referred to the Police Committee.

The Council then adjourned to meet again next Wednesday night.

FIRST MINNESOTA.—Among the noble veterans who arrived yesterday morning from the Potomac army, we noticed the glorious old "Minnesota First," Col. Mark W. Dowling, commanding.

This regiment was the first body of men mustered into the service, after the call of President Lincoln for seventy-five thousand troops. First in the war-path, foremost in the death-charges of Antietam and Gettysburg, they have proudly carried their victorious laurels, by facing thirty-five thousand soldiers of battle, thus receiving a new baptism for each year on their torn and tattered banner.

All honor to this brave "old guard," whose deeds of daring are imperishable, for hundreds of graves on the soil of the "old Dominion," are the grandest monuments of their patriotic devotion and unsurpassed valor.

McKENZIE'S HOTEL.—A new hotel by this name has been opened at the corner of Seventh and Market streets, by James McKenzie, formerly connected with the Louisville Hotel. The entire building was overhauled from cellar to garret, and is now one of the finest and most comfortable hotels in the city. Mr. McKenzie is thoroughly acquainted with the business, and will give it his personal attention, in addition to which he has employed one of the best cooks in the West. Persons stopping with Mr. McKenzie will find large, clean and comfortable rooms, and as good a table as can be found anywhere. His advertisement will be found in another column.

ROBBERY.—Early yesterday morning a gentleman who arrived from Lexington, came to the United States Hotel and registered under the name of "John Smith." He was accompanied by a man who was attempting to put it back in his pocket, when Thompson, who was sitting near by, observed the action and arrested Thompson. He came out of the hotel, and was taken to the police court, and held $500 to answer.

The Court of Appeals will adjourn on the 26th inst.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

COLLISION AND GREAT LOSS OF LIFE!

A SOLDIER TRAIN RUN INTO.

The New Albany Ledger, of yesterday, says about one o'clock this morning a terrible accident occurred on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, near Logansport, Martin county, Indiana. A freight train, coming East, and a soldier train, going West, collided at that point, and in this accident the engineers and firemen on both trains were instantly killed.

While the trains were lying to, after the collision, a very angry dispute arose between the conductors of the two trains as to which was at fault for the disaster. In the excitement which followed this controversy, the conductors neglected to signal any approaching trains, and the result of this reckless carelessness was that another freight train from the East ran into the soldier train while it was at the station, and killed fifteen men and wounded one hundred and fifty, many of whom will die.

We have seldom been called upon to record a more terrible accident, or one caused by more criminal carelessness. The whole affair will doubtless be investigated. The soldiers belonged to Illinois and Missouri regiments, and were en route to their homes.

Recently, a certain gentleman, a friend of ours, not a thousand miles from here, on learning that his sweetheart had been called upon by a party of friends to join them in a pleasure trip to the steam Blue Wing, up the Kentucky river, and fearing the party had already gone, and would leave, he might be properly named, became somewhat indignant and got off the following:

My darling Nell has gone away.
What prompted her I cannot say.
I wish I could see her to-day.
And she's gone up the river.

Why would she take such a flight?
And give me nothing without a fight?
I wish I could see her to-day.
And she's gone up the river.

I apprehend she's on the "Wing."
And gay of her light as anything.
I wish I could see her to-day.
And she's gone up the river.

With silver tongue, and furbish fair,
And intellect so rich and rare;
Another one will she engage?
Then all will be over.

Like Nellie's charms there are but few.
Her form so erect, her eyes so blue—
May I still believe her heart is true?
Or did she go to meet a new one.

Come back! come back! my dearest Nell,
I hope of thee I have not said.
I wish I could see her to-day.
And she's gone up the river.

And that's all that I have to say.
I wish I could see her to-day.
And she's gone up the river.

A Good Idea.—We learn from Mayor Tompkins that Captain Swope, Provost Marshal, informed him that hereafter all soldiers who were arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct would be placed to work cleaning the streets of the city.
